

School Hymn - Esse Quam Videri

© A Mullins

Be yourself, Esse quam videri,
True to Jesus, yourself and what you believe,
Steel yourself, overcome tyranny,
Don't turn away, welcome the day, you will be free.

Take the road, shoulder the load and hold your head up high.
Don't be swayed, or be afraid Christ stands there beside you.

Do, don't say, Esse quam videri,
Jesus will know if you're only show, be what you say.

Always be, alight with integrity,
Be like Jesus, courageous, loyal and true.
Work or play, Esse quam videri,
Speak as you find, clear in your mind of the right thing to do.

Slow to blame, never ashamed to take the high ground.
When you see, hypocrisy, the tocsin sound loud,
Always be, never just seen to be,
Jesus will know, if you're only show
Esse quam videri.
